Settle in. Meet the team. Non-stop from arrival to lights out.

1 Arrive & settle in

Check in, find your room, welcome drink on the terrace.

2 Bandana on, meet your crew

Team assignment doubles as your first icebreaker.

3 Icebreaker games, back to back

A few quick rounds and every name is learned, every guard is down.

4 Dinner, then evening games

One long table, shared plates, then lighter games before the night winds down.

Nothing after dinner is mandatory. An early night is a completely normal choice.

70+ games.

Nobody sits out.

From icebreakers that get strangers high-fiving in the first five minutes, to a Minefield finale everyone's still talking about on Monday.

Tell us what you're going for — connection, celebration or competition — and who's in the room. We build the exact game menu around it, on a call before the event.

Tug of War

The natural closer. Everyone plays, everyone shouts, everyone ends up in the sand.

10–40 players · ~10 min

Sea Relay

Swim out, round the buoy, run back and tag.

8–24 players · ~20 min

Water Balloon Toss

Pairs toss and step back. Cooling, hilarious, everyone can play.

8–40 players · ~15 min

Minefield

Blindfolded runners guided by callers through an obstacle course against the clock.

5+ per group · ~15 min

Lions & Gazelles

A reaction-sprint chase in pairs. Instant adrenaline, loud crowd.

6–30 players · ~10 min

Sack Race

Retro, ridiculous, extremely photogenic.

8–32 players · ~10 min

73 games in the library, including a dedicated set of desk- and office-friendly games — no sand, no equipment — for teams who want a lighter mix.

6 of 73 games shown. The line-up changes every edition.

Meet your host. On-site, every time.

No agency hand-off. The person who built Barcelona Games runs your retreat.
